

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Note for the Reader.

THE present is the fourth volume of the Registers of the Diocese of Lichfield which has been completed by the Shropshire Parish Register Society.

As before, the Registers are given in abstract form comprising all facts which are recorded, and abbreviations, most of which are obvious to the reader, are freely used. A full list of them is given in the preceding volumes, as well as a summary of Parish Register history.

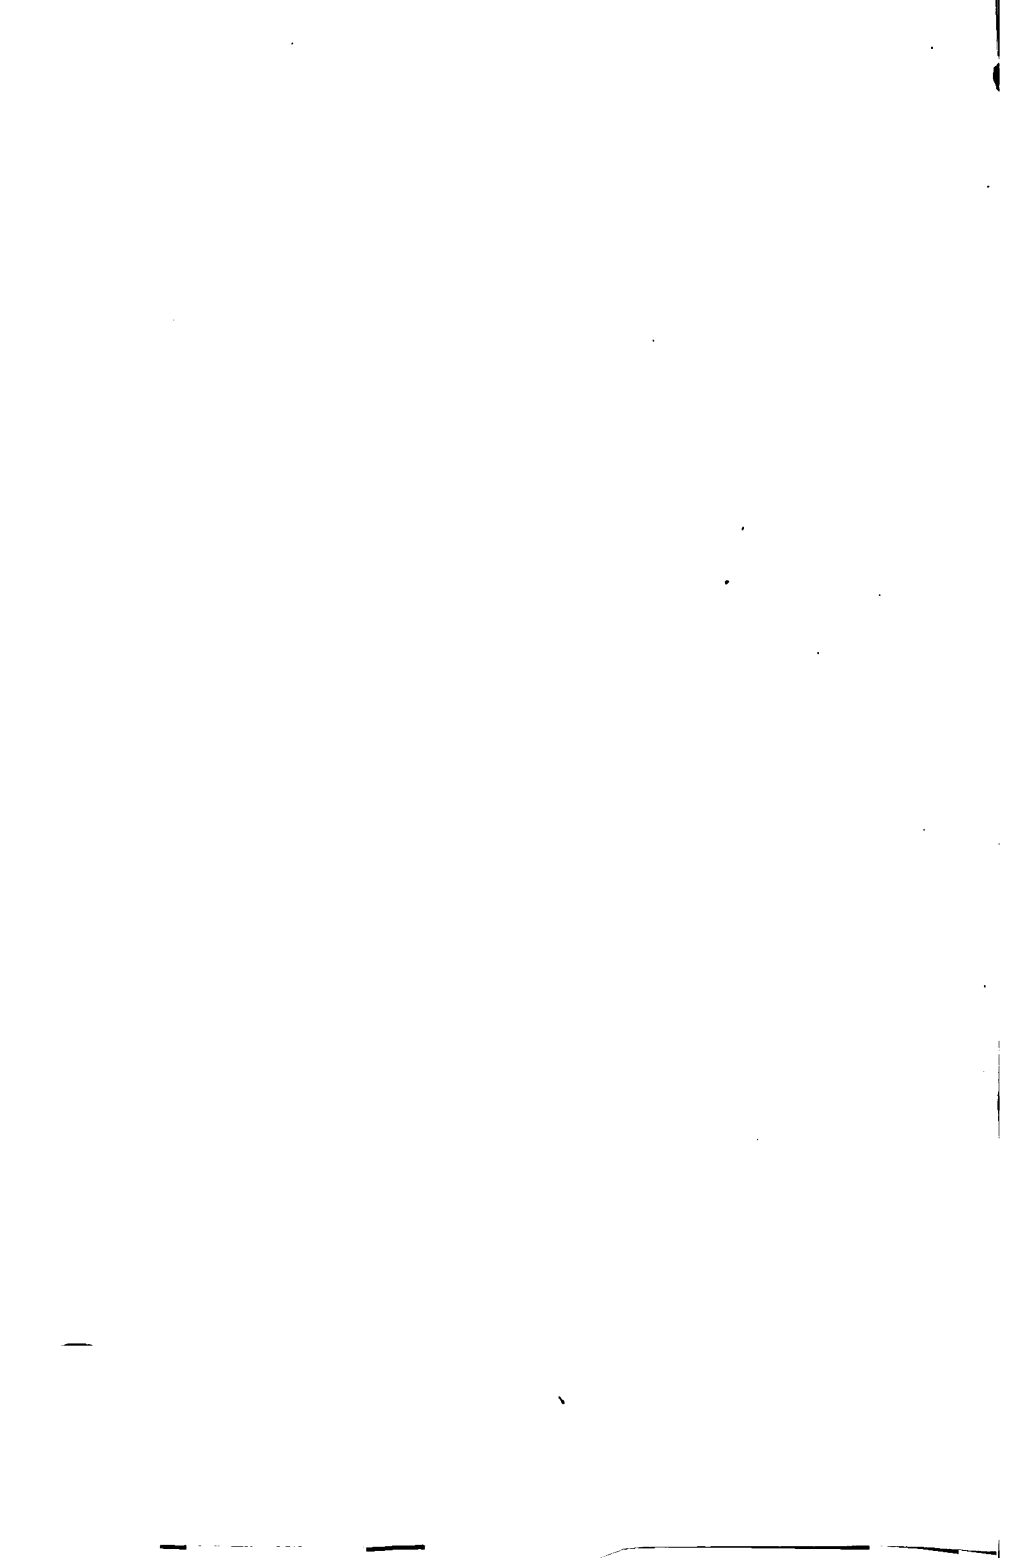

The registers in the present volume are all printed from their commencement down to the year 1812, which seems a convenient stopping-point, as then was inaugurated a new system of registration by what is known as Rose's Act, which lasted only till 1837.

Thanks are due to the clergy, the custodians of the respective registers, for leave to print them, and for facilities afforded in transcription. Their names are mentioned in the respective registers.

The services of those who have assisted are mentioned in the various introductions, but as to this volume it is requisite to specially refer to the aid given in transcription by Miss Parry, Miss Walker, Mr. T. R. Horton, the Rev. J. E. Auden, and Miss A. M. Auden. The Rev. W. G. D. Fletcher assisted in the collation.

The Register of Fitz.

Fitz Registers.

Fitz, with the townships of Grafton and Mytton, is in the Hundred of Pimhill, Rural Deanery of Shrewsbury, and Diocese of Lichfield. Its area is 1,512 acres, and the present population 262, the increase shewn in the Census return for 1891 being merely temporary. The Parish Register Abstract, published in 1831, contains the following account of the Fitz Registers :—"Fitz R. Nos. I. II. Registers 1559—1812." This is not correct, as there are three books containing registers prior to 1812.

No. I. measures 14 inches by 5½ inches, consists of sixty-eight parchment and two paper leaves bound in parchment covers, and is in very fair preservation. It contains entries of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials, from 1559 to 1774. Those dating from 1559 to 1609 are copied from an older "paper booke" no longer existent.

No. II. measures 15¼ inches by 6½ inches, and consists of 133 paper leaves (of which only fourteen have been used), bound in parchment covers. It contains entries of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials from 1774 to 1812.

No. III. is the usual printed form of Marriage Register. It is a paper book in a parchment cover, and contains entries of Marriages from 1754 to 1812. Many of these entries are to be found in shortened form in No. II. On the fly-leaf is written :—"Marriage Book for the Parish of Fitz, bought in the year 1754. John Drury and John Blakeway, Churchwardens."

Fitz, or Fittes, sometimes found written Fitteshoe, and, in the charter of Henry I. to Shrewsbury Abbey, Phitesoth, is in Domesday called Witesot. Before the Norman Conquest it belonged to a Saxon freeman named Hunnith, but was surrendered by him to a Norman Knight, Picot de Sai, who held it under Earl Roger. The neighbouring lands of Mytton were at that time held by the Canons of St. Mary's, Shrewsbury, by whom, probably, the first Church at Fitz was built. Picot de Sai bestowed part of his tithes of the lordship of Fitz on Shrewsbury Abbey, which, however, does not seem to have affected the patronage of the Church, for, in the thirteenth century, Robert de Girros, who then held Fitz under the Fitz Alans, gave to Haughmond Abbey "The Chapel of Fitteshoe," saving a "yearly due" of 22s. which was owing therefrom to St. Mary's. This led to litigation at Westminster between the College of St. Mary and the Abbot of Haughmond, and about the year 1253 a plea of Quo Warranto was tried, the Memorandum of which runs thus:—"Henry, Abbot of Salop, hath been attached to give answer to the King in this plea, viz., as to wherefore, prejudicing the King and his free Chapel of St. Mary, Salop (which chapel is so exempted that neither the Pope, nor any judge ecclesiastic has jurisdiction therein), he [the Abbot] had exercised a jurisdiction in the Chapel of Fytteshoe." After some delay, the chapel was surrendered by Robert de Acton, who held it of the Abbot; but the dispute went on, and, at last, the question was referred to "wager of battle." In this the Abbot's champion was victorious, and by a writ dated October 18th, 1256, the Bishop was ordered by the King to admit the Abbot's nominee as Rector. This seems to have settled the question as to the advowson, for, in 1315, the Abbot presented Robert de Preston as Rector, his right being unquestioned.

After the Dissolution of the Monasteries the first appointment as Rector of Fitz was that of Sir Richard Wylde (or Wild), which was made in 1548 by Thos: Somerfield of Staunton, and John Adney of Acton, assigns of Thos: Newnys, clk.; Ri: Prowde and Js: Ryland, assigns vice the late Abbot, etc. Later, all presentations to the living of Fitz were made by the Crown, till, in 1887, the patronage passed, by exchange, to the Bishop of Lichfield, who, in 1890, transferred it, again in exchange, to the present patron, Sir Offley Wakeman, Bart.

Information about the early history of Fitz may be found in Eyton's Antiquities of Shropshire, vol. x, and in Blakeway's MSS. in the Bodleian Library. Blakeway's account of Fitz is printed in "Shropshire Notes and Queries," ii, 135-140. The early incumbents were:—

- 1253. Richard de Lynton (ejected).
- 1254. Robert de Acton (intruded).
- 1256. Richard de Lynton (reinstated).
- 1257. William de Kilkenny.
- 1267. Robert, Parson of Fittes.
- [?] Richard de Golden, d. 1315.
- 1315. Robert de Preston, acolyte, d. 1334.
- 1334. Sir John Mountsorrell, d. 1343.
- 1343. Hugh de Greyby.
- [?] David, son of Gregory de Pola, exchanged 1347 with
- 1347. John Trochard, late Rector of Llanwidelan.
- 1349. Thomas Banastre of Yorton.
- 1369. John de Harlescote.
- 1377. Robert de Preston.
- [?] John de Morton, Canon of Haughmond, resigned.
- 1398. Richard Payn, clericus in prima tonsura, resigned.
- 1398. Roger Ive, of Leaton, resigned.
- 1426. John de Morton, resigned.
- 1441. Sir John Leche, resigned.
- 1471. Sir Uriann Seymper, chaplain.
- [?] Walter Whoton, resigned.
- 1498. Master — Spoulsbury.
- [?] Sir Adam Coyde, d. 1504.
- 1504. Hugh Gyles, d. 1548.

Since 1559, the date at which the Registers begin, the incumbents have been:—

Sir Richard Wylde, who paid his Composition fees on March 22nd, 1548, and whose burial entry occurs in the Register, February 4th, 1577.

Robert Willton, who is not mentioned in the Fitz Register, but of whom the Register at the Public Record Office gives, "Item, xii^o die Aprilis, Anno Domini, 1578, ad Ecclesiam parochialem de Fitte in Comitatu predicto vacantem admissus fuit Robertus Willton, clericus."

Gedeon Hancocks, appointed 1602. In "An Elizabethan Clergy List" he is referred to as of "no degree, a preacher in his own cure." Buried 26th August, 1616.

Thomas Clerke, B.D., Fellow of All Souls', Oxford, appointed Rector 1616. He seems to have adapted himself to the times, for "at the instance and earnest desyer" of one of his parishioners, he omitted the sign of the Cross at a baptism in 1646, and in 1647, used the "new forme" issued by the "Directorie," and not the Prayerbook. Buried May 7th, 1659.

James Clerke, succeeded his father in 1659. He was suspended for a year in 1698 for having, according to his own confession, celebrated a clandestine marriage at the "Bull in the Barn," a public-house in Frankwell, Shrewsbury, which stood where Cadogan House now is. There is still a small pillar, with a brass plate, marking the site of the well belonging to the old inn. A religious census taken of parishioners over sixteen years of age in 1676, gives Conformists, 76; Nonconformists, 8; Papists, 0. It is evident from the entry for January 6th, 1661, that this Rector restored the use of the Prayerbook. He was buried September 8th, 1702.

Thomas Clerke, of Gloucester Hall, Oxford, succeeded his father in 1703. During his incumbency the present Church (excepting the south aisle, a later addition), was built. He was buried January 21st, 1732.

Adam Newling, M.A., King's College, Cambridge, appointed in 1732. He resigned in 1747, when he became Rector of Shrawardine.

James Ralph, M.A., of whom no trace is to be found in the Parish records. The Bishop's "Certificates of Institutions" gives the following :—"James Ralph, M.A., was Presented by the King to the Rectory of Fitz . . . void by the Resignation of Adam Newling, Clerk, & instituted to it Nov. 17, 1747." In an old note-book kept by the late Richard Middleton, Esq., of Fitz Manor, there is a pencil entry, "Mr. Ralph died in Kent," just before an entry relating to Mr. Hopkins.

William Hopkins, M.A., Jesus College, Oxford, appointed 1774. Buried 1820.

William Hopkins, M.A., Oriel College, Oxford, succeeded his father 1822. Died 1848.

Daniel Nihil, M.A., appointed 1848, died 1866.

Thomas Bearcroft, M.A., Queen's College, Oxford, appointed 1866, died 1877.

Ebenezer Humphrey Jones, St. Bees' Theological College, appointed 1877, left in 1880 to go to Steynton c. Johnstone in Pembrokeshire.

William Parry, D.C.L., Hertford College, Oxford, appointed 1880.

The Curates have been :—

W. Powell, 1750, d. at Fitz, 1765.

Thos. Amler, 1766—1771.

W. Jones, 1771—1772.

Edward Leighton, 1773—1774.

(all during the incumbency of the non-resident Mr. Ralph),

H. M. Phillips, 1820—1821.

Henry Ll. Oswell, M.A., 1865—1866.

The Church is a plain red-brick building, consisting of a nave, with an apse at the east and a tower at the west end. It was built in 1722, when a brief for £1,509 was issued "upon the petition of Thomas Clark, rector, recommended by the Bishop." Contributions are known to have come from St. Paul's Walden, Welwyn; Croxall, Derby; St. Juliana, Salop; High Ercall, and other places (see Church Briefs, by Bewes, page 309). The only monument now visible belonging to the older church is a small tablet, inserted in the south wall of the nave, bearing the inscription "Reliquiae Doctissimi dignissimiq' Viri Johannis Wood olim Collegii Magd. : Cantabr : Praesidis, qui per 30 annos varia passus, tandem Septuagenarius dormivit in Domino, Sept. 19, 1692, ἐμοὶ τὸ σῆν ΧΡΙΣΤΟΣ, κ' τὸ ἀποθανεῖν, κέρδος." This John Wood was an ejected Puritan, who, after living for some years on the charity of friends, died at Mytton. There are two tablets in memory of Edward Waring. One, on the south wall of the nave, gives his coat of arms and the following inscription: "M.S. Edward Waring, Esq^r, M.D., F.R.S., Lucasian Professor of Mathematics in the University of Cambridge & Senior Wrangler 1757. Born in this Parish 1734. Deceased 15th August 1798." Outside the church, on the south wall of the tower, is a tablet with a similar inscription, to which is added "Mary, his widow, daughter of William Oswell, Esq^r, Mayor of Shrewsbury 1751. Ob. June 21 1808. Æt. 73. This memorial was renewed A.D. 1852 by their great nephew John Yardley, M.A., Vicar of S^t Chads, Shrewsbury." His grave is close by among others of the Waring family who owned land at Mytton.

Amongst the principal families, whose names occur in the Fitz Register, are those of Barker, Bather, Clarke, Cole, Kilvert, Kynaston, Lloyd, Oare, Sandford, Scott, Stury, Waring, Wood, Wycherley, and Yonge, who are mostly described as "esq.," "gent.," or "Mr." The entries during the commonwealth period, which record the omission of the sign of the cross in baptism, and the use of the Directory, are of considerable interest.

The Manor of Fitz was bought in 1697 by Robert Wood, who only left daughters to succeed him. Two of them were married at Fitz, viz., Elizabeth, to Mr. Denston, who owned property in Grafton; and Jane to the Rev. William Powell. The great-grandson of this latter marriage is William Powell Frith, R.A. ("Further Reminiscences" by W. P. Frith, R.A., p. 30.) There are monuments in the churchyard to both Denstons and Powells.

The Registers are printed by permission of the present Rector, the Rev. W. Parry, D.C.L. I am indebted to Miss Auden and to the Rev. W. G. D. Fletcher, F.S.A., for much kind help in both the transcription of the Registers and the comparison of the proofs, as they passed through the press, with the original MSS.

The Register of Frodesley.

Frodesley Registers.

FRODESLEY is a parish and village, eight miles south-east from Shrewsbury, in the diocese of Lichfield, rural-deanery of Conover, and hundred of Conover. The area is 2,597 acres.

The Parish Register Abstract, 1831, gives this account of the Frodesley Registers:—"Frodesley R. No. I. (Parchment) Bap. 1547—1812; Bur. 1780—1812; Marr. 1547—1753. No. II. (Parchment) Marr. 1754—1805. No. III. Marr. 1807—1812. The Churchyard was not consecrated until 1780."

The earliest Register Book is a small volume, containing fifty-nine parchment leaves, ten inches by five inches, legibly written, in beautiful condition, and very well kept. Inside the cover is fastened the will of Robert de Longedon, rector from 1358 to 1361.

The two Marriage Registers are the ordinary printed form.

The most important entries in the volume are those relating to the family of Scriven, and those of the children of Sir Richard Corbett, who seems to have lived at Frodesley, while the present Longnor Hall was in process of building.

The Church of Frodesley was originally one of the Chapels of Conover, and a trace of this dependence is shewn by the fact that till comparatively modern times all funerals from Frodesley were taken to Conover. There was a Church here in 1272, and the Taxation of 1291, valued it at £2 per annum. In 1341, it was called a Chapel. It was possibly founded by one of the family of Hunald, who, from the beginning of the thirteenth century held the manor under the Fitz-Alans. The over-lordship passed by marriage to the Burnels at the close of that century, but the Hunalds continued to be lords of the manor till the beginning of the fifteenth, when Johanna, daughter of John Hunald, took the estate to her husband, John Scriven. The Scrivens lived in a fine old stone house near the Church, which was pulled down in 1880, and the present Hall farm erected on its site. This old house had been built by Edward Scriven in 1594; and there still exists a portion of a fine house of about the same date, known as Frodesley Lodge, which possesses traces of past importance in what has been an avenue of trees, and a number of old Spanish chestnuts.

The Scrivens were at Frodesley till 1683, when Richard Scriven, whose father Sir Thomas, greatly distinguished himself on the Royalist side in the Civil War, left a daughter as his sole heiress, who married Roger Whitley, of Peover, co. Chester. Early in the eighteenth century the advowson of the Church and the lordship of the manor, were purchased by Samuel Edwardes, whose descendants retained them till 1784, when Elizabeth, only child of Godolphin Edwardes, sold the Manor and Estate of Frodesley to Sir Edward Smythe of Acton Burnell. The advowson passed later to the Gleadowe family, and has recently passed into the hands of Mr. T. G. Northam.

The parish seems originally to have been mainly composed of small independent holdings. In 1327 the Lay Subsidy Roll gives a list of thirteen tenants, seven of whom were evidently well-to-do, and none really poor, while Acton Burnel had only seven names on the whole assessment. Probably these holdings were originally clearings in the Long Forest, and the control of the lord of the manor over them was not much more than nominal. The number of yeomen mentioned in the register show that many of these little estates retained their independence till comparatively modern times.

In the religious census of 1676, Frodesley had 120 "Conformists" over the age of sixteen, and no Nonconformists or Roman Catholics. The population in 1881 was 235, and in 1891, 179, which shows a considerable decrease in the last twenty years, and several cottages have been pulled down or gone to ruin within recent times.

In 1534, Henry Ince was Rector, and the following is the list of his successors down to the present time :—

1552. Sir George Longmer.

1586-1632. Thomas Baker, bur. at Condever, June 29, 1632.

[In 1602, Lewis Taylor is called "minister of Frodesley and Moreton Corbet." He was buried at Moreton Corbet May 18, 1628. This may account for Thomas Baker not signing himself Rector.]

1636. Nicholas Keysell, minister.

1646-1657. Anthony Puroell, Rector, bur. at Condever, Aug. 13, 1657.

1658. "Mr. Tomson, minister of Frogley," bur. at Condever, May 17, 1658.

July 10, 1622. John Wilkes, M.A.

Feb. 12, 1712. William Roe.

Sep. 4, 1741. Samuel Jones, bur. Feb. 4, 1763.

July 6, 1760. Francis Edwardes, Ll. B. Queen's Coll., Cambridge, bur. Dec. 29, 1767.

Feb. 20, 1768. Rev. Sir. Thomas Edwardes, Bart., M.A., Pembroke Coll., Oxford, rector of Tylston, Cheshire, bur. Sep. 29, 1797.

May 29, 1798. Rev. Sir John Thomas Cholmondeley Edwardes, Bart., M.A., Pembroke Coll., Oxford.

1816. Benjamin Edwardes, M.A., Christ Church, Oxford.

1826. Thomas Reader Gleadowe, M.A.

1843. Thomas Littlewood Gleadowe, M.A., Christ's Coll., Cam., died 1880.

1880. Richard William Gleadowe, B.A., St. Peter's Coll., Cambridge, died 1892.

1892. Frederic John Walker, M.A., Magdalen Coll., Cambridge, resigned 1898.

1898. Arthur Henry Britton, M.A., Christ's Coll., Cambridge, present Rector.

In the Public Record Office is the following list of Church goods of Frodesley in 1552: "The indenture of all the goods of the church, or chapel wth cure of frodesley presented by the p'sone S^r George Longmer, & the church wardens, Laurence Sherer, Thomas Dodd, and Homfray Burnell & Rafe Madocks paryshyonars—fyrst a chalyce of sylver w^t p'er paten, ij bells, ij peyre of vestments, j of crule whyte & Rede, & j of Whyte fustyan, & a croese of brasse. Wrytten the xiiij day of August the sixt yere of the Reygne off kyng Edward the sixt by the grace of god of England, France & Ireland kyng.

ij candylstyks, j tablecloth, & a cruet.

p^r me Georgiu' Longmer, Rector^m ibid^m et Laurentiu' sherer, & thom^m dodd, Homfridu' burnell, & Radulphu' madocks."

The Church, dedicated to St. Mark, is a small building, rebuilt in 1809, with a north aisle added in 1859. The presence of an old font in the Rectory garden points to the existence of a Norman church, of which history makes no mention.

A plot of land called the Butts was left by Godophin Edwardes in the last century, to be administered by the rector and churchwardens for the good of the poor of the parish.

The present transcript was made by Miss G. Walker, with the assistance of the Rev. F. J. Walker, the then Rector, and the proofs, as they passed through the press, were collated with the original registers partly by Miss Auden, and partly by the Rev. W. G. D. Fletcher. They are now printed by permission of the Rev. A. H. Britton, the present Rector.

Immediately upon my induction I was called upon by the Vicar of Condover (Rev. Forester Leighton) for a Mortuary of 10 shillings, as due to the Vicar of Condover, from every inhabitant dying in Frodesley possessed of property to the value of 40^s. I refused to pay the Mortuary on account of my father, for which it was claimed, as did also Mr. Jones for his father, and Mrs. Powell, of the Lane, for her husband. In a short time I received a letter from the Rev. F. Leighton, the then Vicar, confessing his error in demanding a Mortuary, and acknowledging it was not due.

The Register of Uppington.

Uppington Registers.

UPPINGTON is a Parish $7\frac{1}{2}$ miles east from Shrewsbury, and 4 miles south-west from Wellington, in the diocese of Lichfield, rural deanery of Wrockwardine, and hundred of South Bradford. Its area is 706 acres, and the population in 1881 was 101. Lord Barnard is lord of the manor and patron of the vicarage, and sole landowner.

The Parish Register Abstract, 1831, gives this account of the Uppington Registers :—"Uppington P.C. No. I. Bap. Bur. 1650—1783, Marr. 1650—1753. No. II. Bap. 1782—1812, Bur., 1783—1812. No. III. Marr. 1754—1812." This statement is accurate, except that in the second volume the Baptisms commence in 1784.

The first Register, which extends from 1650 to 1783, consists of nineteen parchment leaves, 13 inches by $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches, bound in a leather cover with clasps. One leaf at the end has been cut out, but it evidently contained no entries, as the last eight entries, which follow consecutively, are written on the fly-leaf. It is well written throughout. From 1742 to 1749 the Incumbent, Rev. Edward Tipton, omitted to register, but thirteen entries of these years were entered in 1754 by his successor, John Douglas.

The second Register is one of Lowndes' printed Register Books, issued in 1783, in conformity with the Stamp Duty Act of 23 George III. It is on paper, in a leather cover, labelled "Births and Burials" and there is space for ten entries on each page. The first half of the volume contains Births and Christenings from 1784 to 1812. The latter half contains Burials from 1783 to 1812. But only nine pages of Births and Christenings and eight pages of Burials have been used. The Rev. David Dewar omitted to register from 1804 to 1807, but his successor entered the omissions from a paper given him by the parish clerk.

The third Register is the usual printed form of marriage register. It is on paper, in a parchment cover, and contains entries from 1754 to 1812, but only 33 marriages and 1 additional Banns are entered between those years.

The chief families named in the Registers are those of Stanier and Boycott, who are termed "Mr.," "gent.," or "esq." That of Allestree is also styled "gent.," whilst the Pembertons and Wards were also families of importance.

The Incumbents named in the Registers are as follows:—

1674. Thomas Markham, M.A.
 1716—1738. Francis Latouche, lit.; died 23 and buried 25 Feb. 1737-8.
 1738—1749. Edward Tipton, B.A.; died 3 and buried 4 August, 1749, at Leighton.

Besides the bishop and poet, Uppington had a distinguished native in Dr. Richard Allestree, who was born here in 1619, and became Chaplain to Charles II., Canon of Christ Church, Regius Professor of Divinity, and Provost of Eton, where he died 28 January, 1680-1.

The old Church of the Holy Trinity consisted of nave with south porch, chancel, and small turret containing two bells, and was in the Norman style, with some Perpendicular and later Tudor additions. In pre-Reformation times, the Church was usually served by one of the portioners of Wroxeter, though always ecclesiastically distinct. In later times, the Incumbent was usually also Master of the Donnington Free Grammar School, which was founded in 1627 by Thomas Alcock, for the instruction of the youth of Wroxeter and Uppington. In the Church and Churchyard are many monuments to the Stanier and Boycott families. The Church was restored in 1885, and a new tower and organ chamber built, at the cost of the Duke of Cleveland; the Norman walls and the old windows were, however, carefully preserved.

Some Roman remains have been found in Uppington, and near it is a Roman encampment called "The Moat." The manor at Domesday was held by Gerard de Tornai, from whom it passed to Hamo de Peveril. It was subsequently held by the Mussons, Burnells, the Lords Lovell, Duke of Norfolk, Earls of Bradford, and Dukes of Cleveland.

Some account of "Uppington Church," by the late Rev. W. A. Leighton, will be found in the Shropshire Archaeological Transactions, vol. v, pp. 89—99.

The Registers were transcribed by Mr. T. R. Horton, and were since collated by the Rev. W. G. D. Fletcher, F.S.A., who has also passed the proofs through the press. They are printed by the kind permission of the Rev. Samuel Hobson, M.A., the present Incumbent of Uppington.

JAS. COPE, Curate since Michs, 1769.

May the Parish prosper until this Register is fill'd up, which, upon calculation from the present Entries, will be 300 years.

[The foregoing is on the fly-leaf of Volume II. Then follows a printed Title-Page; and on the next page occur the following directions as to collecting the Stamp Duty, which are also printed. There are ten printed entries on each page for filling up; but only ten pages of christenings, and eight pages of burials, have been used.]

THE REGISTER OF BIRTHS AND CHRISTENINGS ENTERED IN

The Act of Parliament directs, that the levying and collecting a Stamp Duty of Three Pence on every Burial, Marriage, Birth, or Christening, be under the Government and Management of the Commissioners of the Stamp Duties, &c. That every Parson, Vicar, or Curate, or other Person having Authority to make Entries of Burials, Marriages, Births, or Christenings, who shall, after the First Day of October, One thousand Seven hundred & Eighty-three, enter any Burial, Marriage, Birth, or Christening, in the Register for any Parish, Precinct, or Place in Great Britain, before the Parchment, Vellum, or Parsons, &c., are impowered to demand, from the Parent of the Child whose Birth or Christening is registered, or other Person requiring the Christening of such Child, the Sum of Three Pence; and if the Parent, or other Person bringing the Child whose Birth or Christening shall be so required to be registered, shall neglect or refuse, on Demand, to pay the said Duty, he, or she, or they shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of Five Pounds.

Churchwardens, &c., to provide Books, with proper Stamps, for entering Burials, Marriages, etc.

Three Commissioners may grant Licences to the Clergy to enter Marriages, &c., in unstamped Registers; and those Clergy are to pay the Duties arising from such Entries unto the Receiver General, or to some Officer or Person whom the said Commissioners shall appoint.

The Register of Tong.

Tong Registers.

Tong is a parish of 3,539 acres, in the Brimstree hundred, containing in 1891 a population of 445. In the will of Wulfric Spott in 1004 the name appears as Twonga, and in that of Wulfgate of Donington, in the early part of the eleventh century, as Tweonga. Before the Conquest the Manor belonged to Morcar, the Saxon Earl of Northumberland, but it was then included in the grants made to Roger de Montgomery. His son, Roger de Belesme, forfeited it by rebellion to Henry I, who bestowed it on Richard de Belmeis, afterwards Bishop of London. The Bishop was succeeded by his nephew, Philip, who in 1138-9, gave his estate at Ruckley Grange to the Cistercian Abbey of "St. Mary and St. Chad of Buildwas," and, in 1143, land at Lizard Grange to the Regular Canons of Arroasia, "for the foundation of a Church in honour of the Holy Mary, Mother of God," an institution which afterwards became the magnificent Abbey of Lilleshall, whither the monks removed. The early history of this parish cannot be better told than in the words of the Rev. R. W. Eyton, in his Antiquities of Shropshire (vol. ii, p. 191): "Tong was for centuries the abode or heritage of men great for their wisdom or their virtues, eminent either from their prosperity or their misfortune. The retrospect of their annals alternates between the Palace and the Feudal Castle, between the Halls of Westminster and the Council Chamber of Princes, between the Battlefield, the Dungeon, and the Grave. The history of the Lords of the Manor is in part the biography of Princes, and Prelates, Earls and Barons, Statesmen, Generals and Jurists. These are the great names and reminiscences with which the place is associated: the Saxon Earls of Mercia, brave, patient, and most unfortunate victims of inexorable progress; then their three Norman successors, one wise and politic, another chivalrous and benevolent, the last madly ambitious and monstrously cruel; then the Majesty of England represented by Henry I; then the sumptuous and vice regal pride of De Belmeis; his collateral heirs with their various and widespread interests; the adventurous genius and loyal faith of Brittany represented in La Zouch; overwhelming ambition and saddest misfortune chronicled in the name of De Broose; a Harcourt miscalculating the signs of his times and ruined by error; a race of Pembruge, whose rapid succession tells of youth and hope and the early grave; then the open-handed and magnificent Vernons; lastly, Stanley, a name truly English and ever honourable in English ears, yet for one of whom it was fated to cut short the associations which five centuries had grouped round his fair inheritance."

For after having been transmitted by heirship for so long, Tong passed by purchase to Sir Thomas Harris, Bart., whose daughter carried it to the Pierreponts, afterwards Dukes of Kingston, the last of whom, in 1764, sold it to Mr. George Durant, M.P. for Evesham, 1768-74. Finally, in 1855, the estate was bought by the Earl of Bradford.

There was a Castle at Tong in 1098, possibly situated on the mound now called the "Castle Hill," for in Fulke de Pembruge's time (circa 1320) mention is made of land called the "Olde Castle." Leland, writing about 1530, says: "There was an olde Castel of stone caullid Tunge Castel. Syr Henry Vernoun * a late daies made it new al of Brike." Of its fate in the Civil Wars, Symonds notes in his diary: "May, 1645. Tong Castle. First the King had it; then the rebels got it; then Prince Rupert tooke it and put in a garrison who afterwards burnt it when he drew them out to the battaile of York" (i.e., Marston Moor). The fire, however, only injured the East wing. On Mr. Durant purchasing the property, he re-built and altered it to the present structure of mixed Moorish and Gothic architecture.

Of Roger Montgomery's Norman Church, which he founded and gave to Shrewsbury Abbey, nothing is left. The South Aisle of the present building may be referred to the thirteenth century, and may have been the nave of an older church, but all the rest, except the Golden Chapel, was raised in 1410 by Elizabeth Pembruge, in memory of her husband, Sir Fulke. Having purchased the advowson, she proceeded to erect a new building and to found a College for a Warden, four Priests, and two Chaplains. The College was also to maintain thirteen poor, seven of them too infirm to help themselves. One of the chaplains was to have the care of the parish, and the other to teach the servants of the College, and the children of Tong and other neighbouring towns, reading and singing. The College building stood on the south of the Church, just outside the church-yard, till the beginning of this century, and in dry summers the lines of foundation can still be easily traced.

In 1510, Sir Henry Vernon built the chantry, now called the Golden Chapel, and subsequently gave the big bell of 58 cwt. The Church was thoroughly restored in 1892.

At the Dissolution of Monasteries there were great changes in ownership. Ruckley Grange, as belonging to Buildwas, was granted to Edward Grey, Lord Powis; Lizard Grange, as belonging to Lilleshall, was sold to James Leveson, of Wolverhampton; the appurtenances of Neachley Grange, the farm of White Ladies, which were in the parish of Tong, went to the Giffards; and the whole of the possessions of Tong College (valued in 1535 at £22 8s. 1d. per annum) was bought by Sir John Manners for £486 4s. 2d. He, in 1545, sold the site and buildings for £200 to John Wooleitch, whose heirs subsequently parted with them to William Pierrepont, of Tong Castle. With the exception of Ruckley, which now belongs to Lieut.-Col. Sir E. L. Durand, Bart., c.b., the Right Hon. the Earl of Bradford is the owner of the whole parish.

* Sir Henry Vernon was Lord of Tong 1467—1515.

On August 20th, 1651, Charles II encamped with his army at Tong Norton, before his defeat at Worcester, and on September 4th enjoyed the hospitality of Hubble Grange after it.

In 1676 the Religious Census of the inhabitants of Tong over sixteen, was 153 Conformists, 13 Papists, and no Nonconformists; the proportion of Roman Catholics to the total population being higher than in any other parish in Shropshire. The Pandrills of Hubble, and the Forsters of Ruckley would, however, account for this.

The Church (which, as Charles Dickens himself told Archdeacon Lloyd, is the one pictured in the "Old Curiosity Shop"), has been called the Westminster Abbey of the Midlands. For it contains monuments to Sir Fulke Pembruge (1409) and his wife Elizabeth (1446); Sir Richard Vernon (1451) and his wife Benedicta; Sir Henry Vernon (1515) and his wife Ann (1494); Richard Vernon (1517) and his wife Margaret; Humphrey Vernon (1542) and his wife Alice (1531); Sir Thomas Stanley (1576) and his wife Margaret; Sir Edward Stanley (1632); and Ann Wylde (1624); and brasses to Sir William Vernon (1467) and his wife Margaret; Ralph Elcock (1510); Arthur Vernon (1517); Lady Elizabeth Daunsey (1549), and William Skeffington (1550).

After the Reformation, the Minister of Tong sank into the domestic chaplain of the Castle, and at the present time the income of the living includes £14 in lieu of diet and lodging at the Castle, and £6 in lieu of pasturage of a horse in the Park. The Vicarage was built in 1725, and the Minister had then a more independent position.

A full account of the Parish will be found in Mr. George Griffiths' History of Tong and Boscobel, and of the Church in the Rev. D. H. S. Cranage's Architectural Account of the Churches of Shropshire, part i.

The Parish Register Abstract, 1831, contains this notice of the Registers of Tong:—

"Tong P.C. Nos. I, II. Bap. Bur. 1620-1755, Mar. 1620-1754. No. III. Bap. Bur. 1756-1812. No. IV. Mar. 1755-1812."

Volume I* (which commences May 19, 1629, and not in 1620, as the Abstract states), is dilapidated in binding, but is otherwise in good

* There is the following entry connected with this Volume in the Churchwardens' Accounts:—"1630, Roger Austen of Ruckley grandge, one of the Churchwardens, paid for a register booke of parchment, being twelve skins made into sixe and thirtie leaves, vii. For two Journeys to Bridgenorth for a regester book, in kausinge it to be made, and fetchinge it, spent xiiid."

preservation, and legible throughout. The other three Volumes are in perfect condition, the entries of the Rev. Thomas Hall from 1730-65 being almost copper-plate in clearness. Volume I measures 15 in. by 7, now consists of 30 pages, begins May 19, 1629, and ends Dec. 27, 1718; Vol. II measures 14 in. by 6½, contains 23 pages, begins July 23, 1718, and ends July 26, 1756; Vol. III is 11¼ in. by 7½, contains 29 pages, begins Aug. 22, 1756, and ends Dec. 12, 1812. These three are all of parchment. Vol. IV is the ordinary printed form, 13 in. by 9, begins April 9, 1755, and ends Sept. 28, 1812. The most important names to be found in the Registers are those of the owners or tenants of the Castle, i.e., Harris, Pierrepont, Willoughby, and Durant. In the seventeenth century, the families of Salter, Scott, and Lateward, are styled "Mr." or "gent.," and were therefore of considerable standing in the parish. The Marrions, who were freeholders at Tong Norton till quite recently, are mentioned among the earliest entries, and the same may be said of the Duncalfes, who occupied a similar position at Tong. The Pendrills and Fosters, being Roman Catholics, are not alluded to in the Registers, though their names are found in Parish papers in the Church Chest.

The Donington Register mentions George Steenton, of Hobble Grange, husbandman (1556); Thomas Haryson, of Tongue (1568); Thomas Terrye, of Tongue, husbandman (1590); Roger Whystan, of Ruckley, in the parish of Tongue, husbandman (1597); and Richard Poole, of Tong, husbandman (1599). The Albrighton Register: John Morris, of Tong (1602). The Will of John Peynton, of Tong Norton (1579), gives the names of Thomas Clarke, of Lizard Grange; Robert Barbur, of Norton; John Walker, of Tonge; Ralphe Peynton, of Norton; William Rudge, Curate of Tong; Thomas Peynton, Curate of Norton, etc.

The Registers were copied by the Rev. J. E. Auden, and the proofs, as they passed through the press, were compared with the originals by Mrs. Auden and Miss Philbrick.

March ye 14th, 1717. It began to snow at 5 a'clock in ye afternoon; and without any intermission continued till noon ye 16th. Though a strong wind blew all ye while, yt drove ye snow into hollow Places to so great a height as to make ye roads altogether impracticable, yet was ye snow upon ye level in ye garden behind ye Castle found at least 13 inches deep, and sixteen in ye court before it. It did snow again and freeze excessive hard all ye next night, and ye night following. A vast number of sheep were buryed under ye snow 20 or 30 and more of ym together. The sheep yt lay buryed five or six daies escaped, but those which continued longer under were found dead. So great a snow in so short a time, and in a season so far advanced had never been seen by any body in ye Parish. It occasioned, as it had done ye year before, a mighty bright Meteor in ye air, in ye night, some few daies after it had wasted away.

Sept. ye 10th, 1717. The Moon happened then to be totally eclipsed at six in ye afternoon; but ye weather proving foul at yt very time, ye Eclipse was hardly perceived.

ADDENDA.

The following names, found elsewhere, are omitted from the Tong Register :—

In the Churchwardens' Accounts from Easter, 1630, to Easter, 1631, is the entry—

In March, 1780, William Hotchkinson testified on oath that he was 80 years old that month and year, that he was born in Tong, and was Christened in Tong Church, the minister being his Godfather as his parents told him.

In the Churchyard is a stone with this inscription—

The Register of Adderley.

Adderley Registers.

ADDERLEY is a small village and parish in the extreme north of Shropshire, four miles from Market Drayton, and includes the townships of Adderley, Spoonley, and (ecclesiastically) Shavington. It is in the diocese of Lichfield, archdeaconry of Salop, rural-deanery of Hodnet, and hundred of North Bradford. It has an area of 3,938 acres, and a population of 468 in 1891. In 1676 there were 198 inhabitants over the age of 16, of whom two were Nonconformists.

The Parish Register Abstract of 1831 contains this information about the Adderley Registers:—

"Adderley R. No. I contains Baptisms, Burials, 1692—1772; Marriages, 1692—1763. No. II. Bap. Bur. 1773—1812. No. III. Marr. 1754—1812."

Volume I extends from 1692 to 1772, and contains 31 leaves of parchment measuring, $7\frac{1}{2}$ by $12\frac{1}{2}$ inches. Volume II, 1782—1812, measures $14\frac{1}{2}$ by $9\frac{1}{2}$ inches, and contains 26 leaves, 14 only of which are used. Vol. III is a large calf-bound printed Marriage Register, of which $19\frac{1}{2}$ pages have been used, having 154 entries.

In Saxon times "Eldredelei," as it was then written, was held by Edric, a "free man," who, probably, is identical with Edric Sylvaticus, whose stand against the Norman power is still remembered in Shropshire tradition. After the Conquest the manor passed into the hands of Nigel, a clerk, and physician to Earl Roger de Montgomery, who, in 1086, held the four manors of Adderley, Shavington, Spoonley and Cloverley, which, after his time, were consolidated into one manor, of which Adderley was the head. Adderley consisted then of 3 hides, with arable land sufficient to employ $6\frac{1}{2}$ ox teams, but there was only one team on the demesne land, and one with the 4 Villeins and 2 neatherds, who represented the population. There were 2 Hayes (enclosed tracts of woodland), and altogether the manor was of the same yearly value of 15s. as it had been under its Saxon lord. Shavington was estimated at half-a-hide, and under Dodo, the franklin, its Saxon owner, had been worth 12s. yearly. Nigel found it waste, but in 1086 its value had been raised to 15s. There was land for four teams, but on the demesne was only half a team, and another half-team with the 2 Serfs and 3 Bordars. Spoonley still lay waste in 1086, though when the Saxon franklin, Dunning, held it, it was valued at 20s. per annum. It was estimated as 1 hide, with sufficient arable land for 2 teams. Calverhall, unlike Spoonley and Shavington, is not now in the parish of Adderley. It had been two manors in Saxon times, held by the franklins Elmaer and Eluui, when it was worth 18s. per annum. Under Nigel it yielded 20s. and the rent of a hawk. It was estimated as 1 hide and 3 virgates, with land for 6 teams. There was one team in demesne and one with the 2 neatherds and 4 Villeins, and the manor wood could fatten 20 swine.

Nigel's possessions seem to have passed to Earl Hugh de Montgomery, and later, after the rebellion of Earl Robert de Belesme, they seem to have been in the hands of the King, and granted by him to Alan de Dunstanvill. Between 1175 and 1190, Walter de Dunstanvill made a park at Adderley, in which was included a piece of woodland belonging to the Abbey of Shrewsbury's manor of Betton under Lyme, for which Walter gave in exchange a similar piece near Ridgwardine, which had been an isolated portion of Adderley. In 1255, Adderley, Spoonley, and Shavington were held as one manor by Walter de Dunstanvill (II), who, about 1219, had given rents of 10s. in Calverhall and 5s. in Shavington to Shrewsbury Abbey. He also allowed by special deed that the Canons of Haughmond should pass through his manor of Adderley without hindrance when going backwards and forwards to "Le Wiche" and elsewhere with things for their own use. In 1284 Adderley and its members (including Calverhall) were held by John de la Mare in right of his wife Petronilla. Shavington was held under him by Henry de Shavington, and Calverhall by Bogo de Knowill, Lord of Whitchurch, and under him by William de Calverhall. In 1283 John de la Mere had a grant of Free Warren in Adderley. On his death, William de Montfort, the heir to the manor, sold it, with other estates, to Bartholomew de Badlesmere.

In 1315, Bartholomew received permission from Edward II to hold a weekly market on Thursdays at Adderley, and a yearly fair on the vigil day, and morrow of St. Peter and St. Paul (June 28, 29, 30). In 1322, Bartholomew was on the rebel side at the battle of Boroughbridge, where he was taken prisoner, and subsequently executed. Adderley was restored to his son, Giles de Badlesmere, and on his death passed to the youngest of his four sisters, Margery, wife of William, Lord Roos of Hamlake. Their descendants were lords of the manor and patrons of the Church, till the attainder of Thomas, Lord Roos, in 1468.

In the sixteenth century, Adderley and Stoke on Tern were among the estates of Sir Rowland Hill, Lord Mayor of London in 1549, and they passed with one of his sisters and co-heiresses to her husband, John Gratewood. Their son, William, Sheriff of Shropshire in 1572, died childless, and was succeeded by his sister and co-heiress, Alice, wife of Reginald Corbet of Fitz, one of the Judges of the Queen's Bench, third son of Sir Robert Corbet of Morton Corbet. His grandson, John, who was created a baronet in 1627, took the side of the Parliament in the Civil War, though his eldest son compounded in 1650 as a Royalist. His great grandson, Sir Robert, was succeeded at Adderley by his son William, and he by his brother Henry, the Rector, on whose death the estates passed to his nephew, Corbet D'Avenant, who took the name of Corbet, and was created a Baronet in 1786. Sir Corbet Corbet died in 1823, leaving his estates to Richard, second son of Sir Andrew Corbet of Acton Reynald, with whose family the estate and advowson remain.

Shavington was, from the early sixteenth century, the home of the Needham family. Sir Robert Needham, Sheriff of Shropshire in 1529, bought the estate in 1506, but Sir John Needham, a Judge of the Common Pleas in 1457, his great-uncle, had been connected with it. In 1449, a licence was given by the Bishop of Lichfield to Sir Robert Catryke, Rector of Adderley, and Sir John Horton, celebrating in the chapel of Wrenbury, authorising them to perform the marriage of John Starkey and Agnes Needham in the "chapel or oratory of the mansion of John Needham." According to the "Heralds' Visitation," Agnes was a sister of Sir John. Sir Robert, great-grandson of the Sheriff of 1529, received the title of Viscount Kilmorey in 1625, and in 1822 his descendant was created Earl of Kilmorey. Shavington remained with the Needhams till recent years. It now belongs to the Heywood-Lonsdale family. Spoonley, like Adderley, is a manor of the Corbets, but in 1440 the Egerton family seem to have had an interest in it. In that year John Styche made complaint that Philip Egerton, late of Spoonley, had made war against him for five years, "as in lying in wait to slay him, and hath beaten and maimed his tenants, servants, and cousins, and the said John Styche and others out of the country."

The Church, dedicated to St. Peter, was rebuilt, with the exception of the Shavington chapel, in 1801, of stone lined with brick. The tower, as the Register mentions, dates from the time of Queen Anne. The Shavington chapel was the subject, during the seventeenth century, of many disputes between the Needhams and their neighbours regarding the right of burial.

There are several monuments preserved from the earlier Church. One is the brass of an unknown ecclesiastic, either an abbot or a bishop, but the head is missing. Another brass bears the effigies of a knight in armour and his wife and nine children. It bears the following inscription:—"Here lieth buried under this stone the bodes of Syr Robart Nedeham Knight and dame Agnes his wyffe daughter of John Maynwarding of pener esquire which sayd Robart decessed the iiii daye of June Anno domini 1556 and the sayd Agnes decessed the ii daye of Maye Anno domini 1560."

The font is curious, and may be of Norman date with the Latin inscription added later upon the square top. The words are said to run thus :

“ Hic male primus homo
Fruitur cum conjugē pomō.”

The Church was founded before 1291, when it appears in the Taxation of Pope Nicholas as worth £5 per annum. It is valued in the King's Books at £11 6s.
